JANUARY 2022

SOMETHING NEW IS BLOOMING

CLPC's calendar of Spring events is here!

A NOTE FROM YOUR TEAM

Friends,

As the year is new, so are our worship, programs, and events here at Cypress Lake. God has blessed us in so many ways over the past year, and we're eager to discover new opportunities to learn, serve, and praise in 2022.

In addition to the regular contents of The Messenger, you'll find information about our book studies, special services, and outings and events happening in 2022. The Messenger will appear in this "special edition" format a few times per year, usually at the beginning of a new program season.

We look forward to sharing this new season with you. May God bless you in this new year.

In Christ,

Eddie, Katie, Carson, Rachel, and Jonathan

Letter from Pastor Eddie

Marathon runners like to say that every marathon has two halves: the first 20 miles and the last 6.2. I have not run a marathon, but that assessment certainly rings true to my experience. The challenge of any marathon (or any race of any length) is that the excitement and adrenaline of the starting line can often cause runners to begin the race at an unsustainable pace. When I ran a 10K (which I did in my much younger days), I knew I was in trouble when I clocked my fastest time in the first half of the race, and I still had a lot of distance to travel.

Last Spring, I arrived to a shutdown period of the pandemic. I discussed with the staff the importance of seeing this time as a marathon and not a sprint. We needed to not only pace ourselves but to continually remember that we do not have to run this race alone. Each of us on staff is important. Yet, that is not the only resource at our disposal. We - the whole CLPC community - are in this together. Yes, we've run a good race, and I know I benefit from a great staff and the encouragement and help of our membership.

As the body of Christ, the greater church, we need to keep reminding each other that even as we come out of the global pandemic, we cannot change what is true: the world and our lives are changed. Yet, we also believe in a greater truth: we are in the hands of our Creator, who sent his only Son Jesus to proclaim good news that all of humanity may be saved. We belong to God, and we are all loved, claimed, sustained, and called to be light bearers in this dark world.

How we proclaim the Gospel continues to look somewhat different than it did pre-COVID. Yet, the central message is the same. We hope the offerings you find in these pages will give you new ways this new season (including Lent and Easter), to inspire, nurture, and serve as we continue our journey of faith together.

Shalom,

Christian Education Programs

A NOTE FROM CARSON

A new year brings so many opportunities to challenge ourselves and renew our commitment to the things that are important to us. As you consider possible resolutions or plans for 2022, I encourage you to look to the offerings on these next few pages and consider the ones that will help you grow and strengthen your faith. There's something different for everyone happening this year at your church. As Christians, we're constantly looking to find ways to challenge our minds and hearts. I hope you'll find them here.

PRAYING WITH OTHERS PROGRAM

During the month of January, as our Spanish-speaking ministry moves through a pastoral transition, we're excited to continue a special mission of theirs -- the Praying with Others Program. Every Wednesday in January, we invite you to gather with us at 8 PM via Zoom to share joys and concerns. We'll pray for one another in both English and Spanish, and remind ourselves of what it means to be one Christian family.

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL

Pastor Eddie's weekly Sunday School will be resuming on January 23 at 10 AM. The study will continue on Walter Brueggemann's commentary Genesis, Beginnings and will take a fresh look -- and give a new perspective -- to some familiar Bible stories. The experiences of Abraham, Esau, Jacob, and Joseph speak to Christians seeking to live responsibly in our current world. This class will meet in the Fellowship Hall and will use the Kerygma Bible study material. The cost to participate is $22 per person. Email eddie@clpc.us or sign up in the narthex or office.

MONDAY NIGHT MEN'S GROUP

All men of CLPC are invited to join in on exciting discussion each Monday, beginning at 6:30 PM in the Chapel. The group spends time each week discussing our church and, specifically, ways we can help be intentional disciples together. At 7 PM, the group turns toward the sermon and Scripture text from the Sunday before, breaking down the history, meaning, and modern-day application of what we learned in church. We'd like you to be a part of this community of men, seeking to grow as intentional disciples together. Email carson@clpc.us for more information.

PASTOR EDDIE'S BOOK CLUB

If you're anything like Pastor Eddie, you love to read. Join him each month for a discussion on a new book each month with stories, both fiction and real, that inspire us today. Grab the book, read it, and get ready for an exciting discussion on one Monday of each month.

Monday, February 14 from 11:30 AM to 12:30 PM | Unbroken by Laura Hillenbrand

Monday, April 11 from 11:30 AM to 12:30 PM | The Invention of Wings by Sue Monk Kid

THEATER AND THEOLOGY (TNT)

Art may reflect life, but life also reflects art! As Christians, we believe the creative impulse comes from our Creator. People are made in God's image and the likeness of God himself is the Master storyteller. Theater and Theology is just one-way we can engage culture and recognize that art and entertainment are not mindless. Directly or indirectly, it speaks volumes about our lives, our spirituality, and even about our view of God. Join Pastor Eddie for movie nights followed by a short discussion. Light snacks will be provided.

Thursday, January 13 at 6 PM | Unbroken

Thursday, February 10 at 6 PM | The Way

Thursday, March 24 at 6 PM | Luther

Thursday, April 28 at 6 PM | G-Dog (companion film to our Wednesday night Barking book study)

WEDNESDAY NIGHT STUDIES

We've enjoyed spending time studying The Shack and Hidden Christmas with you these past few months. As we enter into a new year, we're excited to begin a new slate of studies on Wednesday nights. Read below to find out more! All will follow Wednesday night dinners, will begin at 6:15 PM, and will finish before choir practice begins.

January: A.I.M. (Adventures in Membership) | Meets January 5, 12, 19, 26

Great news! It's time for a new members class for those friends of CLPC who are interested in becoming active members of our church. Come join Pastor Eddie to learn more about the PC(USA) and, specifically, about CLPC. The best part? While this is a "new members class," this opportunity is for lifelong learners and current members of the church, too. Learn, revisit, or refresh your mind on the essential tenets of the PC(USA), a brief Presbyterian history, how different churches govern themselves, and a history of CLPC. At the end of the class, the Session and Pastor Eddie will meet with anyone considering becoming members of CLPC. Come join us on this four week journey!

February: Firing Jesus by Greg Stier | Meets February 2, 9, 16, 23

In February, join Carson Brown for a study on his favorite book of all time, and explore how Christ might have led in the 21st Century. Firing Jesus is a 100-page exploration of a church in crisis, struggling with their youth pastor. The reactions, political maneuvering and plot twists that ensue will keep you riveted and get you thinking, "could this happen at our church?" As we begin an important conversation as a congregation as to what our future in family ministry will look like, we strongly encourage you to join us. Carson will be leading another section of the study on Thursday mornings for those unable to join on Wednesday nights, so as many people are able to engage with this important as possible. More details will be announced later in January. You can order a digital copy of the book on Amazon. If you'd like a physical copy, sign up in the narthex; ordering will be done through the church. Each family may receive one physical copy free. Additional physical copies are $7.

Lent: Faith and Doubt by John Ortberg | Meets March 9, 16, 23, 30, April 6, 13

Can I be faithful and still follow truth wherever it leads? Is it possible that doubt might be one of those unwelcome guests of life that is sometimes, in the right circumstances, good for you? Join Jim Barfoot for a Lenten journey about sharing your doubts, asking questions, and considering objections to faith that we've always thought about. When we wonder out loud, incredible conversations can occur -- and we hope you'll join us for them. You can order a digital copy of the book on Amazon. If you'd like a physical copy, sign up in the narthex; ordering will be done through the church. The cost for a physical copy will be $10.

April/May: Barking to the Choir by Greg Boyle | Meets April 27, May 4, 11, 18, 25

As we move away from Lent, we'll spend some time together exploring life in conditions most of us could never fathom. In a moving example of unconditional love in difficult times, Gregory Boyle, the Jesuit priest and New York Times bestselling author of Tattoos on the Heart, shares with humor and grace what working with gang members in Los Angeles has taught him about faith, compassion, and the enduring power of kinship. Through this five-week study, Carson Brown will challenge us to redefine our ideas of community and perceptions of the world around us. You can purchase the book online.

CARSON'S SPRING BOOK STUDY

Humans have long pondered the afterlife; even as Christians, we wonder. We invite you to step aboard C.S. Lewis' classic allegorical bus ride from hell to heaven. Join us for a conversation about life after death with Carson as we read The Great Divorce, a small book about some of life's biggest questions. This beautiful meditation on good and evil and grace and judgment will lead us into conversations about our own desires and the things stopping us from truly experiencing God's grace. Check the clipboards in the narthex or email carson@clpc.us to sign up for this study; you can purchase the book on Amazon. This class will meet for seven weeks on Tuesdays at 10:30 AM, beginning January 18.

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDIES

The women's study on the book of Revelation is continuing in 2022. One session, led by Judy Schulte, meets the second Tuesday at 10 AM. Another, led by Chris Giesecke, will meet the second Thursday at 7 PM. The study, Revelation: Extravagant Hope by Margaret Feinberg "draws on layers of symbols, unusual visions and strange imagery to give glimpses into the heavenly realm and the future". You can purchase the book on Amazon in print ($15.99) or on Kindle ($8.99). Please contact Judy Schulte at judith.schulte@yahoo.com or Chris Giesecke at crallybernardes@gmail.com to join a group.

Children and Youth Programs

CHILDREN'S SUNDAY SCHOOL

Our Sunday School program for children and youth will continue in January. This year's Simply Loved curriculum focuses on God's story of salvation continually lived out in our lives each day. Sunday School will continue to meet between services at 10 AM. Email carson@clpc.us to register your child.

YOUTH PROGRAMS

We hope you'll join us on February 27 for Youth and Confirmation Sunday. The PC(USA)'s Big God, Big Questions curriculum has helped lead our confirmands to seek answers to some of the fundamental questions of faith asked when we join the church. As a congregation, we have a responsibility to pray for these students, asking God's blessing to open their hearts and minds to discover who they are in Jesus. Youth group programs will resume in March. Information will be sent to parents as we move closer to this month. If you're interested in serving with our Sunday School or youth group, email carson@clpc.us.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

VBS is on and bigger than ever -- literally! Gather all of the kids you know to come learn how large God's love for us is through this year's Monumental theme. Volunteers, smiles, and prayers will be needed June 6-10 from 5:30-8:30 PM as we work to lead our community to learn that "God loves you...no matter what!"

Mission Team Updates

The Mission Team has reserved the date of February 4th from 2pm until 6:30 to help at Mision Peniel in Immokalee. They continue to work under guidelines with regard to Covid-19 and need only 6 people to help. If you would like to go, we will carpool to the Mission, stop for dinner and return to the church. We would like to give people who have not participated before the opportunity. I will be going as well. Please contact Chris Giesecke at crallybernardes@gmail.com to sign up.

Cuba, It's Complicated

We have had word from our Cuban partners at El Redentor. The transition period for their new pastor, Anays Noda, is going very well. They continue to meet in person and shared that they recently celebrated 119 years worshipping at the church. They send a message of love to all of us and especially to Pastor Joel whom they met 40 years ago.

Project Linus has been able to prove handmade blankets for 1857 children in crises during 2021. This program started many years ago in Colorado and our Lee County Chapter was formed in 1998. We currently have about 65 ladies making quilts and blankets for children being served by 12 different agencies locally. The largest agency is The Golisano Children's Hospital at HealthPark where every child that is admitted is given a blanket to hold close and allow them to feel more secure while going into a strange atmosphere.

The material for each and every blanket that is made, be it sewn, knitted, or crocheted, are provided by each of the ladies with no outside help. Donations of cloth and yarn are always appreciated. They need to be new and colorful designs to give the children an uplift when in a challenging position.

On January 22nd, we will hold our annual "Make A Difference Day" There will be 6 agencies in attendance who will explain about where the blankets go and how they are appreciated by ones who receive them.

This is an outreach program of the Women of Cypress Lake Presbyterian Church. Matilda Wilson, 239-489-3582 is the Lee County Coordinator

Our Mission: Led by the Holy Spirit, we joyfully reach out to the community and the world in faithful love and service as we mature in Discipleship and share the Good News of Jesus Christ.
